William Lloyd Garrison

My dear friend

I am glad to see that the American Anti-Slavery Society is making an especial effort to multiply its lectures. In aid of this effort is the enclosed Tr. for 1200-

Ever since this infamous Rebellion broke out I have felt it to be my one work to help put it down. I have not feared to inquire whether the putting of it down would help or harm some of my cherished interests or objects. I have believed it to be the duty of every man to engage in this work without conditions or reservations. Nevertheless I have not lost my interest in the great Reformation, nor ceased to contribute what I could to their progress.

So you could not make on the proposed visit! Well, that your pleasure is in favor for us another favor.

I hope you get pleasant tidings
from your son George.

My wife joins me in her long-suffering & Fannie W. Waddell & Franklin

Our poor little Willie's frightful maternal has resulted in St. Peter's Dance.
His mother is with him in Newark.
She writes encouragingly of him.

I have spoken & worked much
the last few months with reference to the approaching Election in the State. I have now to stop - for I have become quite nervous again - and I need to give rest to my sleep.
